

Craig Dodson is a proud parent of Harry (prep) and Jack (grade 2). Last cricket season he set a world record cricketing adventure where he played for 11 different clubs across Australia, while raising funds for mental health. Craig travelled over 10,000 kilometres, pulling on the whites for a diverse mix of fantastic cricket clubs. He found himself trapped by a bushfire, travelling 1600 kilometres one day just for a Golden Duck and he was given a hand by greats of the game like Greg Chappell and Darren Lehmann.

Craig has now written a book about the epic adventure. Books only cost $20 with all profits going to mental health charity. If you would like to support a great cause and grab hold of a fantastic book please contact Craig via email at craigdodson@hotmail.com
